

US District Court - Dist N.H.

Woodham v. WoodhamFILED - USDC - NH
2023 MAY 9 AM 10:241:23-cv-00244Some clarification on DefendantsEthnee & Trevor Garner; (spouses) Conway, NH;
Jamaica 1; Jamaica 2; (two citizens of... Jamaica...);NEW DefendantsJohn Does 6-10 of NE Auto of N? Conway NH including the corporations NE Auto of N? Conway NH*NEW* Complaint

NE Auto, & its employees, John Does 6-10, conspired with Robert, Janet Woodham, and Ethnee, Trevor Garner in some fashion to convert $100s of dollars of my belongings, specifically pharmaceutical medications which I require for my immunodeficiency disorder. Specifically, my parents the Woodhams gave my car, filled with my belongings, to the Garners. Who along with the employees of NE Auto, & NE Auto, stole or destroyed them.

I specifically indicated to Robert Woodham, who had actual knowledge that I did not want them to do this thing, that I did not consent to any of this, and demanded fruitlessly that he refrain from interfering from my belongings.

At no point were the other Defendants under the belief that I'd authorized anyone to dispose of my things. In fact the Garners ignored my phone calls & texts demanding to have my things returned - so much as possible - which at that point would have been little more than my empty, but very driveable car.

The story gets worse, but at this point I've stated out a actionable claim for trespass against chattel, conversion, conspiracy to do trespass/conversion, as well as a cognizable claim under the Hobbs Act 24 USC § 1951 + civil RICO § 1962.

Defendants are sued for nominal, compensatory, enhanced compensatory & punitive damages as allowed under law.

Motion for Court's leave to amend to a claim which is Fed-competent because I'm a patient, not a prisoner, & have paid a patient filing fee, preliminary review need not apply. The goal is to submit something credible with the help of a word processor program.

Motion to Merge State claims (into this one).

I sought ~~action~~ relief in Carroll County Superior Court Woodham v. Woodham 212-2021-CV-99, which the NH Judicial Branch in its wisdom has chosen to shelve indefinitely, thus resolving any questions of comity.

To be clear it's not dismissed rather the judge hasn't ruled & the clerk won't talk to me.
